

thespyfm.com

I'm an urban tea-slinging mom and music enthusiast who blogs excessively in order to bring the best and latest music to OKC.

I love Laffy Taffy and Pee-wee Herman and my dream is to one day dance on a giant typewriter with David Bowie.

I work at thespyfm.com because I love introducing people to music, both new and old, and because we're truly dedicated to building a more prominent creative community by nourishing the music culture of Oklahoma City.

I'm Justine Lepak and I Spy.
